

BACK INTO THE WORLD

Soft saffron shimmer climbin' the St. Mary's walls
Sun's slow descendin' and depart from these halls
It's gone

Back into the World
Where realities are hurled at you
Back into the real world

I felt you walkin' and I looked 'round to see
You appearin' everywhere but you did not see me
I'd gone

Back into the World
Where realities are hurled at you
Back into the real world

I remember everything
Every kiss and cuss
Every laugh and every long hard night
And every tender touch

When the movie's over, leave off the lights
Let the music play me out into the night

Written by TK Berg © 2004