

TURN ON THE LIGHTS

Turn on the Lights, turn up the heat
You know that I'm freezin', I ask you, please
Turn on the Lights and let me lie
Down in your arms tonight

Turn on the Lights, turn out the dark
Show me a river and an open heart
Turn on the Lights and let me lie
Down in your arms tonight

Day's been long and deliverance
Carefully kept at a safe distance
Cold rooms and corners
Keenly proving their existence
The lookout found night
The only thing worth looking for
Now I'm here and I've closed the door

Turn on the Lights and let me lie
Down in your arms just a little while
Turn on the Lights, you know all I want's
For you to lie down in mine

Caught a flu up the valley
Just keepin' on keepin' on
Bleached lights and a head wind
Threw me a curve and a rock to sleep on
The lookout cried
"Land Holy Mother it's disappearing!
Tell me who is that guy who's steering?"

Turn on the Lights and let me lie
Down in your arms just a little while
Turn on the Lights, you know all I want's
For you to lie down in mine

Written by TK Berg © 2009